The resource person spoke on the importance of communication skills. She highlighted that for mastering any language skill it is necessary to build four skills namely listening, speaking, reading and writing. She conducted numerous written as well as oral exercises for the students. She stressed on the importance of interpersonal and intrapersonal skills. She added that these skills are important in the legal profession as they help the young budding lawyers in building a good relationship with their client. The students got an opportunity to speak on various topics and were able to overcome their stage fright. The students learnt different techniques to build their communication skills.

Report of the Event: On, November 3, 2021 Army Personnel, Major Aditya Kumar 3MTR, addressed the students on the topic “Indian Army: Laws and Opportunities” and attended by 35 students.

The talk was on the different career opportunities that can be explored by the Law students in the defense forces. It was a motivational talk since it inspired the students to take up the Indian army jobs. The focus was on how one can live a life with pride and dignity being army personnel. Serving the nation is a noble job, which one can ever imagine of doing.

Major Aditya Kumar spoke in detail regarding the job availability or vacancies in the defense forces and the manner in which one can apply for those jobs. He explained in detail the type of training one has to undergo upon selection.

Major Aditya Kumar also stressed upon, how you can prepare yourself both physically and mentally to take up a job in the defense forces. How mental strength and fitness plays an important role in the life of the army personnel and how it helps to live a healthy and a better life.

Working in the defense force also provides job security, pension benefits and other benefits after retirement. Army personnel are entitled for the travelling concession in the Indian Railways and various other facilities.
