

5.1.4

Annual report of the committee monitoring the activities and number of grievance and redressed to proof timely redressed of the grievances: -

The actions and achievements of St. Wilfred's College of Arts, Commerce, and Science's Grievance Committee, Internal Complaint Committee, and Anti-Ragging Committee are detailed in this yearly report. These committees are essential to preserving an inclusive, courteous, and safe environment on college property.

Anti- Ragging Committee:

The Anti-Ragging Committee did not let up in stopping or dealing with ragging instances. For incoming and current students, we planned workshops, orientation sessions, and awareness campaigns. There were no documented ragging occurrences throughout the year, demonstrating the safe and supportive environment on campus.

Grievance Committee:

Grievance Committee members actively handled issues brought up by staff, professors, and students. The complaints that were received covered a wide range of topics, including facilities, academics, and interpersonal relationships. These complaints were settled in the allotted period, guaranteeing prompt resolution and encouraging an environment of candid conversation.

Internal Complaint Committee:

The Internal Complaint Committee kept up its efforts to guarantee a school free from harassment. It held training courses and awareness campaigns on gender equality and harassment avoidance. Effective resolution of these ensured everyone's safety and dignity, including the campus community.
