Event Summary	On 06/12/2023, students from St. Wilfred's College of Law, Panvel, Mumbai visited the Bombay High Court to deepen their understanding of the Indian judicial system. The visit began with an informative briefing about the court's history, architecture, and significance in the legal landscape. Students toured various courtrooms, observing live proceedings that showcased the dynamics of legal practice. They learned about the roles of judges, lawyers, and court staff, gaining insights into the complexities of the legal process. The highlight of the visit was a Q&amp;A session with a senior advocate, who shared valuable perspectives on legal careers and the importance of the judiciary in upholding justice and protecting citizens' rights. Overall, the visit was enlightening, allowing students to appreciate the workings of the legal system and inspiring many to consider careers in law. The experience underscored the vital role of the judiciary in a democratic society.
