MESSAGE

Research in any field has a definite role to play to ensure guaranteed success with desired result. The first step to conceptualize any work or project or product starts with RESEARCH, which as d name itself suggests- Re-Search, till the work/ project/ product is proved to give optimum result when floated practically. However, the right methodology and process is the essence of Research, which has got a clear link between the conceptualized work and final result. Research is a never ending process as everything we do, everything we create, always, has scope of improvement. Nothing on this world is perfect.

Organisations and Institutions around the world have acknowledged the importance of research in every field over the period of time, result of which has been that institutions around the world are more focused on research now. Research Foundation of India is one big name amongst such National institutions, which is doing excellent job in not only nurturing new talents but also encouraging others to support research based activities and promote it around the world through its conferences nationally and internationally. Not only RFI is proving its mettle through successfully bringing out Research papers, Journals, giving Scholarships and Awards, organising workshops, seminars, conferences and events all over the world in various fields including and not limited to science, social studies, humanities, engineering and management but also through its Iconic Representatives, Conveners and Brand Ambassadors, who are the Flag Bearers of India, the BHARAT.

I am thankful to RFI for giving me opportunity to be associated with Research Foundation of India, which I accept with gratitude. I wish him and RFI all the success in all their endeavours in making India n Indians proud.

I feel elated to come to the NC-CAWI-2020 being Organised by St. Wilfred's College of Law, Panvel & Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University, Mumbai (M.H.) India In Association with Research Foundation of India with an aim of imparting best of the education at graduation level with best of the facilities at its 63 acres serene campus. I wish its management and office bearers of Guru Gobind Singh Trust a great success in making the University unparalleled in the field of education & research in times to come.

OFFICE OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

I am happy to know that Department of Law, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University and St Wilfred college of Law are in association with Research Foundation of India organizing a conference on "Crime against women in India" on 27th February 2020 at GD Vadaya Auditorium, CSMU campus, Panvel, Navi Mumbai Maharashtra 410206,

Undoubtedly during recent past, increasing atrocities against our girls and women have been noticed which has become matter of great concern for the government as well as to the civil society. Despite the various interventions by the government, institutions, media and individuals to redress the challenges to minimize the violence, the menace of gender violence has not declined.

I congratulate the organizer to take up very the theme for the deliberation during the conference. I hope the output of the deliberation during the conference would pave the way for effectively tackling the issue.

I wish all the success to the national conference
